The war feeling is general throughout the country and there is a disposition to parley with Spain. The general sentiment is in favor of demanding Cuba in payment for outrages [illegible] Cuba papers are full of [illegible] Spain wants to Arbitrate and insist that the Virginius was not an American vessel but was owned by Cuban agents and was falsely registered and [illegible] frequently sailed under different flags within the past few months. [illegible] Ryan, it is claimed by Spain, was [illegible] a citizen of the United States at the time of his capture but was engaged in unlawful expedition against a friendly power. A large fleet will be sent to Cuban waters in a few days. There has [illegible] no call for troops and of course [illegible] be none until Congress takes action but the navy, coast defences &c., are being placed in a condition for war.

RAILROAD CHANGE.

H. H. Porter succeeds Col. Howe as General Superintendent of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad.

UTAH.

Salt Lake Nov. 26th. An immense meeting here yesterday denounced Spain and called for vindication of the American flag.

School Meeting.

Friday night a meeting was held to adopt some plan for the erection of a school house and preliminary steps were taken for the organization of a joint stock company for that purpose. Last evening an adjourned meeting was held when a constitution and by-laws were adopted. The company to be called the "Bismarck Institute Company." Its object is the erection of a suitable school room [illegible] at less than $3[illegible] or more than $10[illegible]; shares five dollars each. The government rests in a board of seven directors, Messrs. D. W. Foster, J. N. Pye, N. S. Wells, J. S. M[illegible], J. O. S[illegible], J. W. Fisher and H. F. Douglas, directors.

The following officers were appointed: D. W. Foster, President, N. S. Wells, Vice President, J. M. Pye, Secretary and Treasurer. Treasurer to give bonds in the sum of one thousand dollars and the money to be deposited in the bank until required for use.

The directors are to select the site and report together with a plan and other items of interest next Thursday evening at a meeting to be held at Goodson's Hall.

The books are open for subscriptions and in the hands of the Secretary. About $250 was subscribed at the meeting [illegible] the district.

A Fearfull Country.

This Northern Pacific country is [illegible] all (?) [illegible] ready to grind. Wheat is produced at the rate of from thirty to forty bushels per acre. The roughest potatoes [illegible] bushels per acre. Squashes weighing [illegible] pounds, Beets, 27 pounds, and so on [illegible] And, on Tuesday last, Mr. B. L. Perry laid on our [illegible] tomatoes [illegible] which he picked off his vines this spring—Oct. 28th. Oh, yes, we [illegible] tender hearted editors of Chicago, Cincinnati, and elsewhere, (who are owned in the interest of Nebraska and Kansas railroads,) will continue their howlings on behalf of the "poor people along the Northern Pacific Railroad," [illegible] relief be sent us—we [illegible]—Brainerd Tribune.

Yes this is a fearfull country. While in other localities people have been shivering in the cold, or wading in mud here six weeks of the most delightful weather, Indian Summer with all its charms, has prevailed. As yet we have had no snow, except a little last week, which melted as it fell. We have had three slight rain falls in that time, and perhaps half a dozen windy days. One night, Oct 31st, the thermometer reached zero, and aside from a few cold days [illegible] that time the weather has been [illegible] warm and pleasant. Yet it is a terrible country, newspapers paid by rival interests to write it down, say so.

Excelsior Hall.

At last Bismarck has a hall for public [illegible] that is a credit to the place [illegible] The hall [illegible] to small parties, and [illegible] the military posts and residents in Bismarck are invited to try it. The hall will be opened by a Masquerade Ball to-morrow evening. Andy Golden is enterprising, he stands in with all public enterprises and ought to prosper. With them as they desire, as Carter's juveniles desire to go for his scalps, for all know him and speak in the highest terms of Andy. With his usual liberality Golden offers Excelsior Hall free for all public meetings.

The arrest of the dance house people at the Point resulted, after a three day trial, in a fine of ten dollars [illegible] against the keepers for having a disorderly house. The inmates were not fined. During the trial the County Attorney subpoened a number of leading citizens, supposed to be members of the Law and Order party, to appear as witnesses in order to harrass them and possibly to make expense. No good has resulted from the prosecution and it is generally believed that it was only instituted to make trouble.

Kicking Post.

In view of the excited state of the public mind, some [illegible] youths have erected a Public Kicking Post, situated across the street from Goodell's, where all who are disposed to kick at things they don't like are invited to step and kick. A [illegible] given the highest [illegible] payable in county orders.

[illegible] from Fort Abercrombie Friday with fifty recruits for the 17th infantry. They were six days on the road, travelling from Abercrombie to Fargo and from Jamestown to Bismarck. The direct march was made in four days.

Call at the TRIBUNE Office, or the news stands, and get extra copies of the TRIBUNE this week. One copy ten cents or six for fifty cents.

The Yankton Press can use our kicking post. It goes for the Governor and Secretary in a way that hurts for the recent [illegible] of judges.

Judging from the complexion of the Dakota laws the power which passed them was an "aggregated ass" of which Williams was a component part.

Burleigh is the only county on the N. P. R. R. which will be entitled [illegible] Legislature [illegible] are not included in any representative district. Burleigh as well as the other counties was left without provision for court, but the Governor has supplied the deficency in that respect. We had a repsentative in the last Legislature but one would never know it from any good he accomplished. He drew his milage via St. Paul, Chicago and Duluth, however, and got a county named for Dan.

Burleigh is attached to Charles Mix together with sixteen other counties for Legislative purposes. Carvelle tried to stuff a ballot box last fall, was caught at it and his game failed; this fall a bogus return was counted. Others can play the game too and Bismarck may be cheated out of representation in the next Legislature through a fraud in the southern part of the district. A man who would stuff a ballot box or make a bogus election return is worse than a horse thief and in some localities would be allowed to make his confession at the end of a halter.

The man who went in search of the Moody faction in this locality, which Williams said rejoiced when McCook was murdered, found one Moody man McKay, who at the caucus and at the polls did his level best for Williams, and one ex-Moody man, Williams, who sold out to Moody and the Democrats last winter to get his seat in the Legislature but went back on them to save his milage. The TRIBUNE has been shown the [illegible] of the Dakota Herald during the campaign from which it appears [illegible] loves Moody as the [illegible] At least he [illegible] that fashion.

Some time ago there was considerable cheap talk in relation to school lands, settled by certain parties prior to the survey, and, if we mistake not, the County Attorney was authorised to go to Pembina, two hundred miles by rail and one hundred and fifty by stage, to protect the interests of the county in the matter. We know but little of the facts in this particular case but this is true however. The County of Burleigh has no more to do with the land in question than the man in the moon. Even if it had an interest in school lands those taken by actual settlers prior to the surveys could be held by them if a thousand county attorneys, placed on the track through ignorance or envy, should protest. When the [illegible] becomes a State, and a law is [illegible] turning over the school lands [illegible] to the several counties, then, till then, will county authorities [illegible] in expending money to protect school lands."

Salt Lake, Nov. 26th. An immense meeting here yesterday denounced Spain and called for vindication of the American flag.

School Meeting.

Friday night a meeting was held to adopt some plan for the erection of a school house and preliminary steps were taken for the organization of a joint stock company for that purpose. Last evening an adjourned meeting was held when a constitution and by-laws were adopted. The company to be called the "Bismarck Institute Company." Its object is the erection of a suitable school room; capital not less than $300 nor more than $1000; shares five dollars each. The government rests in a board of seven directors, Messrs. D. W. Foster, J. M. Pye, N. S. Wells, J. S. Mann, J. O. Simmons, J. W. Fisher and H. F. Douglas, directors.

The following officers were appointed: D. W. Foster, President; N. S. Wells, Vice-President; J. M. Pye, Secretary and Treasurer. Treasurer to give bonds in the sum of one thousand dollars and the money to be deposited in the bank until required for use.

The directors are to select the site, and report together with a plan and other items of interest next Tuesday evening at a meeting to be held at Golden's Hall.

The books are open for subscription and in the hands of the Secretary. About $250 was subscribed at the meeting in sums ranging from five to thirty dollars. If the matter is pushed there will be a building [illegible] and a good school [illegible]. There are eighty-four [illegible] persons in the district.

A Fearfull Country.

This Northern Pacific country is fearfull(?) Cucumbers [illegible] seventy five days from the day of planting till it is ready to grind. Wheat is produced at the rate of from thirty to forty bushels per acre. The cheapest potatoes, 800 bushels per acre. Squashes weighing 163 pounds. Beets, 27 pounds, and so on through the catalogue. And, on Tuesday last, Mr. B. L. Perry laid on our table as fine a lot of ripe tomatoes as ever, which he picked off his vines that morning—Oct. 28th. Oh, yes, we hope the tender hearted editors of Chicago, Cincinnati, and elsewhere, (who are owned in the interest of Nebraska and Kansas railroads,) will continue their howlings on behalf of the "poor people along the Northern Pacific Railroad," till releif be sent us—we are in an awful fix.—Brainerd Tribune.

Yes this is a fearfull country. While in other localities people have been shivering in the cold, or wading in mud, here, six weeks of the most delightful weathers, Indian Summer with all its beauties, has prevaild. As yet we have had no snow, except a little last week, which melted as it fell. We have had three slight rain falls in that time, and perhaps half a dozen windy days. One night, Oct 31st, the thermometer reached zero, and aside from a few cold days about that time the weather has been as now, warm and pleasant. Yet it tis a terribele country, newspapers paid by rival interests to write it down, say so.

Excelsior Hall.

At last Bismarck has a hall for public uses; one that is a credit to the place in every sense. Recognizing the necessity for such an institution, Andy Golden &Co. have fitted up the upper story of the building formerly occupied by Boyd & Wells, for that purpose. The hall is 16x45 and will [illegible] [illegible] settees. It is well lighted and heated, and has two reception rooms adjoining, nicely carpeted and furnished with chairs, soffas, center tables and mirrors. The hall is specially adapted to small parties, and gentleman from the military posts and residents of Bismarck are invited to try it. The hall will be opened by a Masquerade Ball to-morrow evening. Andy Golden is enterprsing; he stands in with all public enterprises and aught to prosper. With [illegible] such [illegible] [illegible] them as they desire, as Custer's have to desire to go for his scalp, for all know him and speak in the highest terms of Andy. With his usual liberality Golden offers Excelsior Hall free for all public meeting.

The arrest of the dance house people at the Point, resulted, after a three day trial, in a fine of ten dollars adjudged against the keepers for having a disorderly house. The inmates were not fined. During the trial the County Attorney suboened a number of leading citizens, supposed to be members of the Law and Order party, to appear as witnesses in order to harrass them and possibly to make expense. No good has resulted from the prosecution and it is generally believed that it was only instituted to make trouble.

Kicking Post.

In view of the excited state of the public minds, some innocent youths have erected a Public Kicking Post, situated across the street from Golden's, where all who are disposed to kick at things they dont like, are invited to step and kick. A premium will be given the highest kicker; payable in county orders.

Lt. Howe arrived from Fort Abercrombie Friday with fifty recruits for the 17th infantry. They were six days on the road, marching from Abercrombie to Fargo and from Jamestown to Bismarck. The latter march was made in four days.

BISMARCK.

ONE HUNDRED AND TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS EXPENDED IN BUILDING.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY SEVEN STRUCTURES ERECTED.

GOOD ENOUGH FOR THE FIRST YEAR.

In June 1872 the first settlement was made at Bismarck. By the first of the following January thirty buildings hand been put up, including stores, dwellings and stables. With five or six exceptions those erected were log "shacks" costing on an average, say, $150 each.

In April, 1873, building again commenced and by the time the railroad was completed to Bismarck, June 5th, about forty additional cheap structures had been put up.

A TRIBUNE reporter was detailed last week to report the improvements for 1873. He visited everyhouse on the town plat and the following is his report which shows the owners, size and cost of buildings as nearly as could be ascertained. Of course there are some errors but the report is as accurate as anything of this character can be made.

The improvements for 1873 aggregate $110,935. One hundred and thirty-seven buildings were erected, making at the present time 167 buildings. This in view of the fact that titles are not yet obtained to the town site is immense. The improvement would have been double, at least, had the townsite matter been settled, and the number of buildings greatly increased. But as it is it is good enough for the first year.
